NEUBERGER BERMAN

Ardian and the Del Bono family renew their partnership in Neopharmed Gentili and welcome NB Renaissance as new partner

Ardian, a world leading private investment house, today announces its reinvestment through its latest fund in Neopharmed, together with NB Renaissance, jointly holding a majority stake with equal shares. Mediolanum Farmaceutici will maintain a significant stake in the Group.

Italian pharmaceutical group Mediolanum Farmaceutici and its CEO Alessandro Del Bono have renewed their partnership with Ardian as they seek to continue the company's impressive growth after four years of strong performance. This includes establishing further ambitious development projects for Neopharmed Gentili and welcoming Neuberger Berman as a new shareholder in the Group.

Under the agreement, Mediolanum Farmaceutici will maintain a significant stake in Neopharmed Gentili and Alessandro Del Bono will continue to lead the company as CEO and Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Headquartered in Milan, Neopharmed Gentili is one of the main pharmaceutical companies operating in the Italian market. With one of the largest networks of pharma representatives in Italy, Neopharmed Gentili is a market leader in therapeutic areas such as cardiovascular and neurology.

In partnership with Ardian, Neopharmed Gentili pursued a long-term growth strategy, expanding both organically and through an ambitious buy-and-build plan, which resulted in six M&A transactions in four years. This growth plan also saw the Company strengthen and diversify its product portfolio, achieving revenues of €250m.

Through the renewed agreement, the Del Bono family, Ardian and NB Renaissance have laid the foundations to continue to drive growth, supporting the company and its management team by providing new capital.

"We are very excited about the future. The partnership with Ardian and NB Renaissance represents an important step forward in the history of Neopharmed Gentili, which will assure to be increasingly competitive in a context of growing complexity and will open new markets. We have achieved the goal of making Neopharmed Gentili a solid and credible player in the Italian pharmaceutical market thanks to the high scientific value of our solutions and the widely recognized quality of our team of professionals. Today we have new challenges and new goals, and we look forward to being able to continue to grow and create value, always preserving our culture and identity."

• ALESSANDRO DEL BONO • CEO AND CHAIRMAN – NEOPHARMED GENTILI

"We are extremely proud of the relationship established with Alessandro Del Bono and with the entire management team of Neopharmed Gentili. As a result of our partnership, the company has achieved brilliant results over the past four years, and we are convinced there are numerous continued growth opportunities in Italy and abroad. We believe that this partnership with NB Renaissance will facilitate further consolidation and international development, while safeguarding the current corporate culture."

• NICOLÒ SAIDELLI • MEMBER OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, HEAD OF ARDIAN ITALY AND DEPUTY HEAD OF BUYOUT– ARDIAN

"We are very grateful that the Del Bono family and Ardian have chosen NB Renaissance as a new partner and we strongly feel the responsibility to support Neopharmed's growth, development and value creation. Based on our long-standing expertise in the pharma industry, we believe we can make a significant contribution to the success of the company and its stakeholders."
